

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

CHINA IN CONTEMPORARY INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS: BEYOND THE BOUNDARIES OF WESTERN AND NON-WESTERN INTELLECTUAL TRADITIONS

June 23-24, 2022

hybrid format: in Warsaw and online

The Department of Asian Studies, Faculty of Humanities in Warsaw, at SWPS University and the Department of Regional and Global Studies, Faculty of Political Science and International Studies, at the University of Warsaw have a pleasure to invite scholars specializing in China Studies and International Relations to participate in our upcoming conference to discuss the following research questions:

1. How far do Chinese political traditions determine the decision-making process in the P.R.C.?
2. What are the domestic and global determinants of China's contemporary international strategy and foreign policy?
3. How can China's approach towards international rules and institutions be interpreted through Western and non-Western intellectual traditions?
4. What are the consequences of China's rise for liberal democracies and the liberal world order?
5. What are the major mutual perceptions of China and the West in international political discourse?
6. What are the patterns of China's current bilateral relations with other international players?

Submissions deadline for research papers, panels, and roundtables is February 28, 2022

Confirmed Keynote Speakers

Roger T. Ames

Huiyun Feng

Read more about the conference >>

Looking forward to hosting you in Warsaw in June 2022.

Scientific Committee:

Professor Edward Halizak - University of Warsaw, Professor Marcin Jacoby - SWPS University,
Professor Jakub Zajęczkowski - University of Warsaw, Aleksandra Jaskólska, Ph.D. - University of Warsaw,
Marta Tomaczak - SWPS University, Polish Academy of Sciences.