

CONTEMPORARY CHALLENGES TO HUMANITARIAN ACTION PERSPECTIVE OF DIRECT PROVIDERS IN POLAND

Event organized at the occasion of the 30th Anniversary of the Network on Humanitarian Action (NOHA)

20th December 2023, 9.30 AM - 4 PM

Column Hall at the Faculty of History, University of Warsaw,
Krakowskie Przedmieście 26/28

Topics	Speakers	Time
Introduction and opening	dr Elżbieta Mikos- Skuza , NOHA Director of Studies prof. Daniel Przystek , Dean of the Faculty of Political Science and International Relations dr Valeri Vachev , Director of Studies at the Faculty of Law and Administration	09.30 - 9.45
Protection and assistance to refugees, IDPs and other migrants	Chair: prof. Dorota Heidrich , University of Warsaw <ul style="list-style-type: none"> International Organization for Migration, Mr. Collin Williamson, Senior Programme Coordinator Danish Refugee Council, Ms. Helena Lassen, Country Director Poland, Moldova, Romania 	9.45 - 11.15 Coffee break
Many faces of vulnerability	Chair: dr Zuzanna Kulińska-Kępa , University of Warsaw <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Save the Children, Ms. Celina Kretkowska - Adamowicz, Director of Programme Operations Poland Response Polish Humanitarian Action, Mr Maciej Bagiński, Board Member Polish Center for International Aid (name tbc) 	11.30 - 13.00 Coffee break
International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement perspective	Chair: prof. Patrycja Grzebyk , University of Warsaw <ul style="list-style-type: none"> International Committee of the Red Cross, Ms. Denise Duran, Head of Regional Delegation in Warsaw International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies- Ms. Anna Cerutti, Head of Operations and Programs in Poland Polish Red Cross - dr Magdalena Stefańska, Head of International Relations Department 	13.30 - 15.00
Wrap up remarks & Christmas Lunch	prof. Patrycja Grzebyk , NOHA Director	15.00 - 16.00