

GLOBAL INITIATIVE
AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME

THE SUMMER SCHOOL OF ILLICIT TRADE

8-12 JULY 2024
WARSAW, POLAND

About the program

Join us for an immersive learning experience at the University of Warsaw from July 8 to 12, 2024, as we delve into the complex world of illicit trade. Organized by the Global Initiative against Transnational Organized Crime in collaboration with the University of Groningen, and hosted by the University of Warsaw, the Summer School of Illicit Trade offers a unique opportunity to deepen your understanding of this pressing global issue and explore strategies for combating it.

Throughout the course, participants will engage in a dynamic blend of lectures, workshops, case studies, and discussions, led by experts and practitioners in the field. Explore the intricate economic, social, and security implications of illicit trade, gaining a nuanced understanding of its far-reaching effects on industries, communities, and global stability.

Applications are now open. Find all relevant information below or scan the QR code.

> Where and when

University of Warsaw, 8-12 July 2024

> Course fee

For students: 650 €
For professionals: 900 €

> Target audience

Undergraduate students in their final year, graduate students, PhD students as well as professionals seeking to learn more about illicit trade.

> Application procedure and deadline

Fill out the online application form available on the Summer School website. Please include your CV and motivation letter (max 1 page). The application deadline is 31 May 2024. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.

> More information

<https://globalinitiative.net/analysis/summer-school-on-illicit-trade-2024>